Our Mission:

William Temple House restores hope and renews strength in individuals and families, in a welcoming and respectful atmosphere.

Event Overview

- Format: An elegant evening featuring hors d'oeuvres, a sumptuous dinner, wonderful wine pairings, musical entertainment capped by silent and live auctions featuring fine wines, unique wine packages, vacations, weekend getaways, art and creative gift baskets. All proceeds benefit William Temple House's mental health counseling, emergency social services and voluntary pastoral care programs.
- Our Guests: Connoisseurs of the Vine attracts affluent auction lovers and wine enthusiasts passionate about the wine experience who enjoy sharing their discoveries with friends and family.
- When: Saturday, September 24, 2011, 6 - 10 pm
- Venue: World Forestry Center, Miller Hall
4033 SW Canyon Road, Portland
Convenient complimentary parking
- Sponsorship: Sponsorship opportunities are available. Each opportunity includes complimentary event tickets and recognition in the community.
- Tickets: $1,000 for a table of eight or $125 per person.
- Dress: Business, cocktail attire.
- Benefiting: William Temple House is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization providing mental health counseling, emergency social services and pastoral counseling to more than 12,000 individuals and families each year.
- The need for emergency food and clothing and accessibility to mental health counseling is especially critical this year as unemployment has hit more and more local families.
- Services are made possible by private donations and by the proceeds of events such as Connoisseurs of the Vine. William Temple House receives no government or United Way funding.
